Dear Mrs. Chapman,

Can you help me with my husband's Neill-Oates lines?
I enclose two charts.

Chart no. 1 takes the Neill and Oates families as far as we have authentic data.

Chart no. 2 takes up the James Oates (d. N. C., 1703) - Wyatt line, (The Bolton line can be traced for several generations farther.) James Oates and his daughter Sarah Oates Neill were members of the Oates-Wyatt family, and I wish to find the missing links.

Some members of the Oates family went to Virginia, but I think that Sarah Oates Neill's ^{ancestor} went early to Charleston, S.C. Probably he was John, b 1697, or Joseph Edward Oates (who I think was a son of ^{one of} the above-mentioned brothers) died in Charleston, S.C. in 1781 ^{age 55}. He had a son Dr. Edward Oates, and I think other sons, James, John and ^{Joseph & Stephen} William. The three last mentioned, also Joseph and Charles were heads of households in 1790 (in Charleston district). Dr. Edward was not married until 1792. John Oates Neill was a cousin of William Oates of S.C. (b 1835, governor of Alabama).

Many years ago Joel Munsell & Sons of Albany, N.Y., later, South Norwalk, Conn., listed an Oates genealogy in their catalogue. Recently I wrote the company but received no response.

If you can assist me in either the Neill or the Oates line or both, please let me know and mention fee.

Yours sincerely,
Jessie D. Neill (Mrs. Louis A.)
